Welcome Message

Dr Sergey Suchkov, MD, PhD

Dear Colleagues, Partners, Scientists, Clinicians, Bioengineers and Friends,

Advances in fundamental, translational and clinical research as well as in environmental sciences are beginning to transform the healthcare landscape including cancer-related risks and to generate global avenues to secure the health and wellness via illustrating the phenomenal impact of Personalized and Precision Oncology-related armamentarium in the daily practice of modern physicians.

In this context, we at Sechenov University and Moscow Engineering Physical Institute (MEPhI) jointly with many universities of US and Europe look forward to welcoming you to the fantastic 12th World Cancer Congress, to be held in the City of Moscow.

The meeting planned would bring in a new spin on conferences by presenting the latest scientific improvements in canonical Cancer Research and Oncology and its Translational and Clinical impacts. The Congress will provide a forum for researchers, clinicians and industrial partners to present cutting edge research and learn about the latest breakthroughs and technologies in oncology-related areas. The Congress will provide the ideal forum to stimulate ideas and establish collaborations as well as to initiate intense discussions. The Program will discuss how the newest and unique technologies can be used to improve diagnostic, predictive and prognostic segments and how to prevent, to treat and to cure cancer, and how it is helping to centralize and organize medical knowledge.

Our goal is to open a forum to facilitate the exchange of knowledge and experience and to invigorate the field with young clinicians and scientists. The Congress would secure the attracted participation from many of established leaders as well to open a green light for concentrating focus on generating solutions to the field's challenges. The latter would propose ways to encourage investment in innovation and stimulate the adoption of personalized and translational oncology in the daily practice.

We look forward to seeing you at the Meeting, and to providing you with an unforgettable scientific and social experience in Moscow which whilst being the global capital for elegant sophistication and thus the emotional and cultural capital of the world is also a place where many different cultures, academic science and clinical experience, artistic excellence and sophisticated tastes meet in interesting and fascinating ways.

Personally we are convinced that the international partnership and collaboration would play a crucial promoting role for the jointly set projects from any points of view. We do hope that your interaction with your colleagues from many different countries will stimulate a creative exchange of ideas and will be personally rewarding.

So join us in Moscow, Russia. We look forward to seeing you there!

Thanks,

Respectfully,
